£14.30 per person

Minimum of 50 people

The New Year has started and Christmas seems like a distant memory, so what has January got to offer?

Burns Night of course!

A Burns supper is a celebration of the life and poetry of Robert Burns, suppers are normally held on or near the poet's birthday, 25 January. However, celebrations may be held at any other time of the year.

This is an informal menu where the guests are asked to come up to the buffet table for staff to serve their food. This price does not include waiting to the tables. Meals are served on china plates with full cutlery. Tablecloths are not included.

Our Burns night supper consists of:

- Champit Tatties (Creamed Potatoes).
- Bashed Neeps (Mashed Swede Flavoured With Nutmeg).
- Haggis.
- Rich Onion Gravy.

For dessert

- Cranachan (Raspberries Layered With Creamy Oats, Whisky & Honey) Served With A Crisp Shortbread.
